right thee never if thou canst not o'ercome her will, thy love will be thus fruitless e - ver.

Was I so base that I might not aspire
Unto those high joyes which she holds from me?
As they are high, so high is my desire,
If she this deny what can granted be?
If she will yield to that which reason is,
It is reasons will that love should be so just,
Dear make me happy still by granting this,
Or cut off delays if that die I must.
Better a thousand times to die
Than for to live thus still tormented,
Dear but remember it was I
Who for thy sake did die contented.
